To the Young Men and Young Women of the Class of 1950:

You and I have been together in Bryant for three and a half years. In that time, we have watched the world struggle with a precarious peace. As you leave Bryant to go out into the world, you must feel, as I do, that a responsibility rests on your shoulders as the young citizens of our community and of our nation. You must do whatever you can to help maintain peace in our world.

I think Bryant has done a great deal to prepare you for this grave responsibility. In your classes you have learned to disregard rumor and to be suspicious of the violent and angry charge of dishonesty or treason. You have learned to appraise news and to appraise the intentions of men in political life. You have learned to reserve judgment. More than ever, now, this is an important adjunct of good citizenship. More than ever, now, in our mighty nation we can afford to be contemptuous of the angry utterances of the representatives of other nations. They speak out of their weakness. We may be calm because of our strength.

In our community and in the larger communities in which you may serve, do your share as a good citizen; use your education, a good one, for sound purposes. Never forget that the men and women of our community respect you because you have had the advantage of a high school education in Bryant. Remember that they respect the learning you have acquired and look to you to be a useful fellow citizen.

As you go out, you take with you the best wishes of the faculty and my very warm hope that life will treat you well. I know that you will be a credit to your school.

Yours sincerely,

WALTER H. WOLFF
Principal

Grade Adviser

DR. MARGARET HEALY

We wish to express our deepest gratitude for your patient understanding and kindly assistance which has been so helpful in bringing our stay here to a successful end.

Social Adviser

MISS HELEN GUNNING

Your unfailing good humor and enthusiasm will always be a part of our pleasantest memories of four happy years.

SENIOR HISTORY

Now that January, 1950, has finally arrived, bringing that much coveted diploma within our reach, we are grateful for all the opportunities we have had for learning and can look back over the fun and friendships these high school years have brought.

In our freshman year, we faced many hardships, trying to adapt ourselves to so many new experiences. We spent our second year familiarizing ourselves with Bryant's activities, for we were then joining the varied clubs and teams.

From our junior year we cherish many pleasant memories. For it was then that we gained recognition, and were organized as a class. The Shmoo was selected as our symbol and we proudly wore our Shmoo pins signifying we were Juniors. We will long remember the gaiety of Junior Day and our hats—bright green tophats, which our classmates signed as a friendly gesture. The Junior Day play "Small Change" was said be one of the most successful and enjoyable junior plays ever given in Bryant. With all this excitement, before we knew it, we were whirled into the Prom at the Essex House.

At last we were Seniors and felt very proud of our blue and yellow senior hats. The prestige and gaiety we enjoyed as Seniors made this term the best of all. One of the most popular traditions in Bryant is the celebration of Senior Day, and like all previous classes, we thrilled to the fun of dressing up in different kinds of costumes; beautiful, amusing, or some—just plain peculiar. The Senior skit "They Do It Every Time" was very amusing and much applauded; even the actors enjoyed it. We were the first Seniors to have a night dance on Senior Day. In December, our final year was climaxed by the Junior-Senior Prom at the beautiful Park Sheraton Hotel.

Now graduation is at hand and we must leave. We have a deep sense of accomplishment and pride, but mixed with our joy there is the conventional feeling of sadness. We are deeply grateful to our grade adviser, Dr. Healy, social adviser, Miss Gunning, our teachers, and all others whose expert guidance, and thoughtfulness helped us to bring our stay in Bryant to a successful conclusion.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Class of January 1950, being of sound minds and bodies (in spite of ourselves) and desiring to insure our immortality, do hereby declare this document to be our last will and testament which, upon execution, will bring a little happiness (we hope) to many deserving persons. We thus bequeath the following items of great value to our unsuspecting victims.

To Mr. Wolff we leave an alarm clock, a cold shower and breakfast trays to accommodate his next Semantics Class.

To Miss Johnston we leave a piece of carbon paper so that she can repeat her messages with ease.

To Dr. Healy, one of the sweetest teachers we know, we leave a box of candy and a bouquet of roses.

To Miss Gunning we leave a five-weeks' cruise to Mexico so she will not find it necessary to abscond with our senior dues—as some suspect she will.

To Mr. Reynolds we leave a revolving door to take care of the traffic in his room.

To Mr. Smith, who has a part of all the feminine hearts, we leave a great big valentine.

To Miss Fox we leave "the man called X."

To Miss Rogers we leave a de-giggled Postscript Staff that refrains from splitting apples, discussing the world situation and filling out college applications instead of working feverishly over the Postscript.

To Mrs. Fielding we leave an automatic door that closes as the late bell rings.

To Miss Hubschmidt we leave a space in Cosmopolitan for her endorsement of Ipana toothpaste for "the smile of beauty."

To Miss Standish we leave nothing because she has everything.

Henry Rothman leaves Mr. Selzer,—which ought to make Mr. Selzer very happy.

Walter Tornabene leaves his copy of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" to those having difficulty with the dean.

Joan Hain leaves her energy to all those who have to walk the long mile from the cafeteria to the fourth floor after lunch.

Al Corsico leaves his Dubarry Success Course to any over-nourished seventh termer.

Joan Wickliffe leaves the spark in her personality in case a light blows out.

George Covel leaves some ham to the Bryant cafeteria in case of a meat shortage.

Claire Gorin is willing to rent, for a reasonable rate, her soap box on Columbus Circle to an argumentative Junior who wishes to air his opinions.

Jerry Katz leaves his photographer's privileges to Stefan Herz.

To Juniors in search of charm, Marion Wolff leaves her bracelets.

Harry Stern leaves his "giraffe's eye view of Bryant" to all freshies.

To the Juniors, Renee Becker leaves a collection of her poetical late passes to give them senior "savior faire."

Eric Vieler leaves to the school library his autobiography with instructions on how to get that "experienced look."

Flanagan leaves his seat in the coat closet to a future economic student who wishes to get away from it all.

In witness thereof, we the graduating class have to this document, our last will and testament, subscribed our names, this year of nineteen hundred fifty.

CLASS OF JANUARY, 1950

On this, the final day of January, 1950, the Shmoos of Bryant, (occasionally referred to as the Senior Class) in our presence signed and sealed the foregoing document and declared the same to be their last will and testament. We, upon their request, have affixed our signatures to it as attested witnesses and do declare that all contained within is the express wish of said class.

OUT OF THIS WORLD

"This is Armand Kalish, your on-the-spot television broadcaster. I am at Idlewild Airport, where a rocket ship with thirty-six people is preparing to leave for Mars. These people represent the first attempt to bring civilization to a planet which was one day declared uninhabitable.

"Some of you may remember that twenty years ago Professon Kolensky made the startling announcement that Mars would be ready for habitation in 1970. That day has finally come! Here we have reunited some of the most prominent members of the William Cullen Bryant High School Class of January, 1950. This group represents the first to participate in an experiment of this kind.

"And now we switch you to Howard Zimmerman who is stationed at the foot of gangplank, and he will tell you the role each person will play in this new civilization."

"The first passengers we see boarding the ship are the great architect Stephen DeCario, and the famous interior decorator, Jean Papadopolus. Also participating in this experiment are Professor William Kolensky and his associate, Vera Dokulil, world-reknowned scientists, who will attempt to perfect their theory of pro-histamine. Protection and health will be supervised by Police Commissioner Arthur O'Conner and Dr. Stanley Sniegocki with his able nurse, Irene Scheublin. Joan Oliver, the women's All-Around Athletic Star, is seen following Gerald McElroy, noted Fifth Avenue custom tailor. Accompanying Mr. McElroy is Joan Dinaro, the celebrated dressmaker. Among those boarding we now see that illustrious Parisian fashion designer, Mlle. Sandra Chesler. The brilliant lawyer, Joan Josephs, long known for her eloquent defenses in her many cases, is now entering the ship.

"Walking up the gangplank is Edith Engler, the lovely Metropolitan Opera star, followed by Senator Al Corsico from New York. The next person who appears is Fredique Bowyer, the eminent artist, and close behind, her counterpart in the world of music, Alice Ingebrand. Also in the field of art and now seen boarding the plane is John O'Keefe. To develop new political theories in the new world, Sidney Landau, the well-known political leader, is among those present today. Following Mr. Landau, we see Marie Curry and Jean Dalton, champion speed stenographers of the United States. The next personality to board the plane is Miss Kathy Woodhead, the vivacious Conover model and immediately behind her, Miss Cathy Hamilton, the effervescent comedienne. Next we see that eminent leader of society, Patricia Tavalacci. There is a cheer from the crowd as those great athletes, Joseph O'Keefe and Herb Reiman, enter the ship with Roger Reubelt, the baseball manager.

"For entertainment in the new world we have Jean Francese and Arthur Tropp, the famous dance team. Two other entertainers among this group are Wilma McQuade and Howard Spielman, whose stirring stage performances have endeared them to the hearts of many. And here comes Dennis Saunders, the singing cowboy, idol of millions of children. Joan O'Grady, who holds the title of the champion woman skater of the United States and Europe, is now boarding the plane with Vincent Sauchelli, the playwright who won the Nobel Prize for his play, "Death of a Junior." Nancy Grant, the well-loved author of the newspaper column," Advice to the Lovelorn," is just about to enter the ship. Among the many celebrities is the international linguist, Francois Raynaut.

"It seems that everyone is in the plane for the gangplank is being raised. On this day—but wait! There is somebody running frantically to the plane. Who can it possibly be? Ah, yes. I see now that it is that prominent inventor of the Atomic Clock, June Segerman. (Late as usual.) Well now, I'm certain that all the passengers are aboard. The door has just been closed and the gangplank raised. The pilot, Daniel Fierro, is signaling that the plane is ready to take off. The rocket ship stands ready. The rockets have been inserted and everyone is being told to stand back. There it goes! The crowd now is beginning to disperse as we see a tiny speck in the clouds and then finally nothing. A seemingly impossible experiment has begun."

"This has been another broadcast in the series of on-the-spot television broadcasts brought to you every week at this time. This is Armand Kalish saying goodbye to you. I shall see you next week at the same time."

3B CLASS

President ..... Barbara Lundgren
Vice-President ..... Virginia Terraris
Secretary ..... Lila Roberts
Historian ..... Arlyne Krum

The Bee Zees have made their sixth term a memorable one. In years to come we will look back on the many wonderful events which crowded our sixth term. First on our list will be our sixth term dance which was a huge success. We shall reminisce also on our inter-term basketball game, Christmas masquerade, and skating party.

We are grateful for having the guidance of our social adviser, Mrs. Mac Gregor, and our grade adviser, Mr. Zuckerman. They played no small part in making our sixth term the success it was.

JUNIOR CLASS

President ..... Sal Orlando
Vice-President ..... Lucille Kyvallos
Secretary ..... Jean Turner
Treasurer ..... Margaret Owens
Historian ..... Mary Garrett
Girls' Athletic Manager ..... Joan Gibbons
Boys' Athletic Manager ..... Bob Di Nicola

The Junors reigned in full glory on Junior Day, December ninth. Our hats were an intellectual inspiration, typical of the "Dimwits"—mortar boards. We really were trying them for size. Never before has there been more room for classmates' autographs. The play, Bob Di Nicola's brain child spiked with catchy tunes and lyrics and quips from other shining "Dimwits," had the "Shmoos' smhoed. ' To prove that "Dimwits" aren't half-wits and are better than "Shmoos," we gave our Junior-Senior Prom at the Park Sheraton in the Florentine Room on December second. The girls were lovely and the boys never more handsome.

A vote of thanks goes to Miss Seith, who has prepared us to take the coveted Senior places, and to Miss Parrott for her untiring aid in making our Junior Term a success.

THE SENIOR ARISTA

Head Girl ..... Anita Wallis
Head Boy ..... Martin Schutt
Secretary ..... Claire Markowitz
Treasurer ..... Richard Lederer
Head of Auxilium ..... Joan Wickliffe
Borough Representative ..... Sarah Ziman
Faculty Adviser ..... Miss Margaret Standish

The Arista is the honor society of the William Cullen Bryant High School. It is composed of students from fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth terms, whose records show good scholarship, character and service rendered to the school.

All students eligible for admission to Arista are interviewed by present members. A meeting is then held in which the results of the interviews are submitted to the student body for a vote. After the election of students who are considered best qualified for membership, a list of these prospective members is submitted to the Senate, i.e., faculty advisers to Arista, who in turn give their final approval.

As is the custom with many other organizations, initiations are held for incoming members. The initiation consists of having the students dress in some comical attire and terminates with a social gathering in the afternoon, at which refreshments are served.

There is an Auxilium branch of the Arista whose sole purpose is helping students deficient in various subjects. Arista members devote their spare time to aiding these students to secure a better understanding of their work.

For the members themselves, the Arista affords the opportunity for exchanging and developing ideas and interests.

Miss Standish is the faculty adviser in charge of all Arista activities. All the graduating members join in thanking her for her splendid help and in making our membership in this organization most enjoyable and helpful.

THE BAND

President ..... Nancy Sciacchitano
Vice-President ..... Alice Ingebrand
Secretary ..... Paul Berger
Treasurer ..... Nicholas Pace
Librarian ..... Frederique Bowyer
Faculty Adviser ..... Miss Lottie Tobin

The Bryant High School Band, under the direction of Miss Tobin, has been quite an active organization this term, both in and out of school. Alternating with the orchestra, the band has played at the schools' assemblies, contributing several lively marches, and entertaining with various concert pieces. Our work this term has ranged from Schubert's bright "Marche Militaire" to the modern Gavotte from Prokofieff's "Classical Symphony."

Outside of regular school assemblies, the Band also appears at the Town Meeting Forum, and the concert, both of which take place annually. At the last concert the Band included the music of Bach and Beethoven among its selections. Parades, too, are part of the activities of the group. Columbus Day and Memorial Day find Bryant musically represented along Fifth Avenue, capes flying in the wind.

At this point the Band would like to bid a fond farewell to those of its members who are being graduated this term. They have given generously of their time and musical capabilities to help build a sound organization. The many details which do not appear on the surface, and which are so necessary to the smooth functioning of a musical group, have been performed largely by them. In this regard special mention goes to Freddie Bowyer and Alice Ingebrand who have given outstanding service. And so adieu to them and to Paul Berger, Nancy Schiacchitano and Milly Vystrcil.

DRAMA WORKSHOP — FOOTLIGHTERS

President ..... Alfred Corsico
Vice-President ..... Diana Huth
Secretaries ..... Theodosia Mesh, Mary Garrett
Treasurer ..... Renee Becker

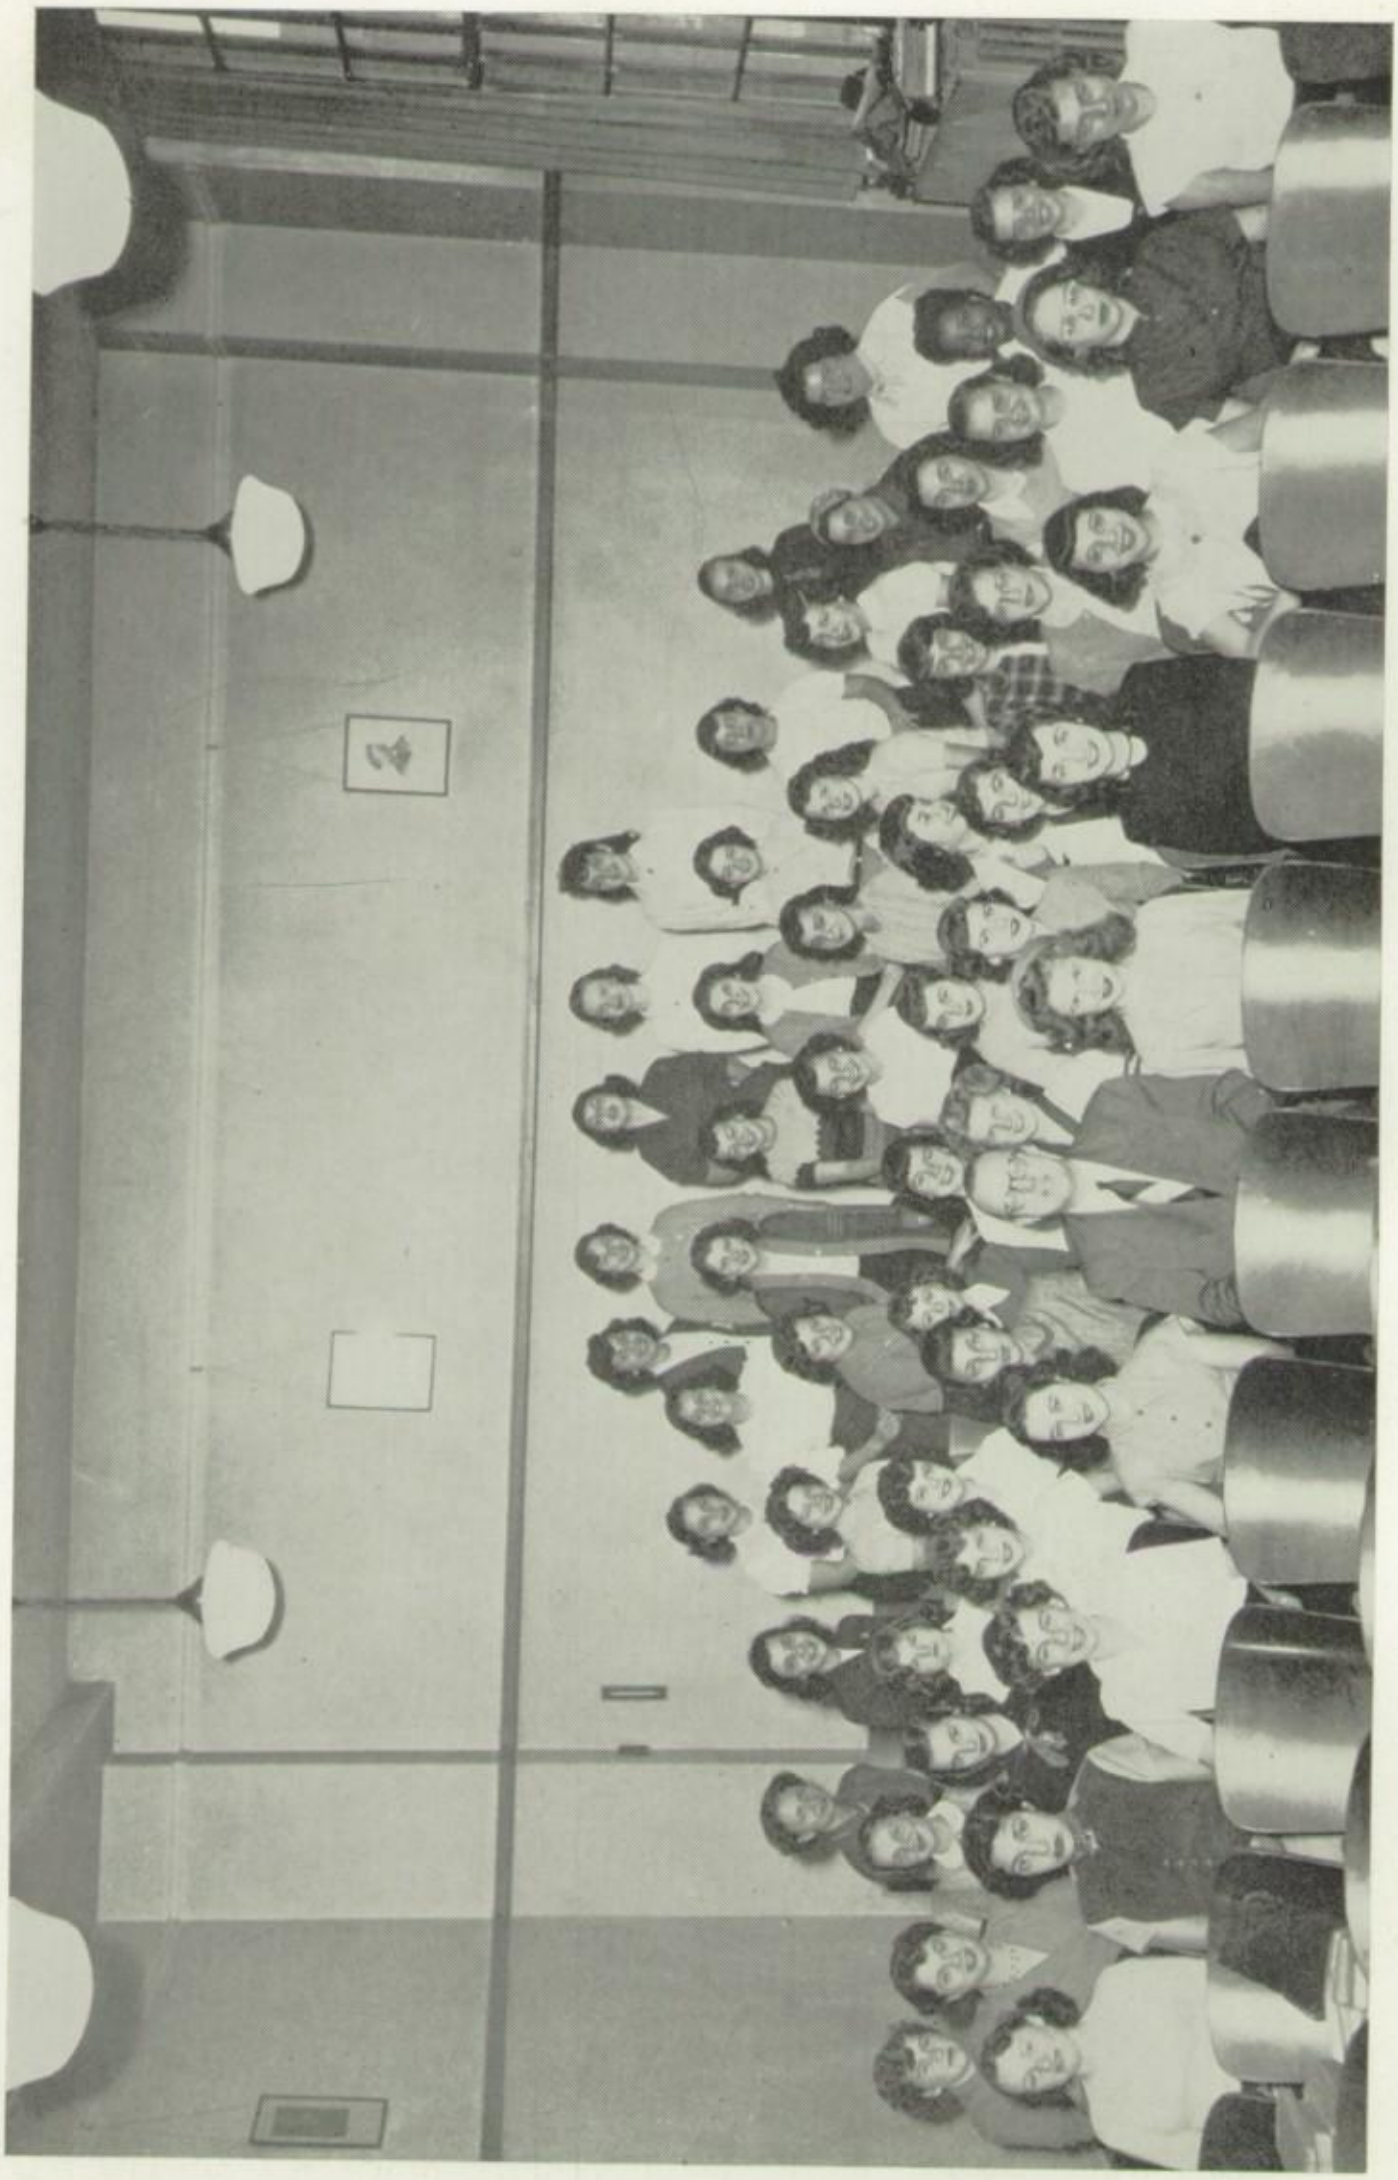
The Drama Workshop Footlighters has achieved distinction as Bryant's dramatic group. This group entertains the school, parents, and friends of the students annually, with their histrionic ability. Also, at the beginning of each term, the Footlighters present a club assembly program, which is designed to introduce the various clubs to the pupils. In addition to this and classroom activities such as pantomimes, improvisations, and monologues, the Drama Workshop is continually busy with the Spring Play. During the Fall Term, the club must choose and hold "tryouts" for the play that is put on in May of each year.

In order to select, cast, and stage such a play successfully, it is imperative to have a good director. We are proud to say that we have the best. In the foreground may me introduce Mrs. Beatrice Lawrence, the director of many of Bryant's wonderful hit shows, and guiding light of the Footlighters. With a double cast made up of about half the Workshop, Mrs. Lawrence works out character interpretation, staging, and meaning of the play. This is a difficult enough task and sometimes becomes exasperating when the "artists" become temperamental. However, we are happy to say that we have never lost a director and hope never to lose Mrs. Lawrence; without her the show wouldn't go on.

Being very fortunate all around, we boast a director in the behind-the-scenes chore of presenting a play, Mr. Jerome Silverstein. The back-stage crews (props, scenery lighting, and costumes), which are the unglamorous but vitally important part of production, and composed of the other half of the Workshop, are all under the able and masterful supervision of Mr. Silverstein, who was, himself, an actor.

There you have the organization of the Drama Workshop Footlighters as we are when hard at work. Our social life, too, is very full, including club parties, theatre parties, through which we attend some of the current Broadway hit shows, and inevitably, a celebration at the completion of each Spring Play.

Looking to our laurels as all actors do, may we suggest you recall such hits as "The Royal Family," "Beggar On Horseback," "I Remember Mama," and "My Sister Eileen," to illustrate our success in the world of the theatre.



GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

President ..... Joyce Gutkaiss
Vice-President ..... Edith Engler
Secretary ..... Joan Lowell
Faculty Adviser ..... Mr. Clifford Megerlin

The Senior Girls' Glee Club is founded on the principle that the love and appreciation of good music is fostered by an active participation in its production. The universal instrument—the voice—by its very universality makes the Glee Club a truly democratic organization of equal musical opportunity for all.

Were it not for the limitations of time and space, the Glee Club would consider one hundred per cent membership of the entire student body as the ideal situation. Practical consideration denies us this utopian ideal but recruits are always welcome and a place made for them in our congenial group.

Our program this term is a really varied one with a wide range of appeal for listener and performer alike. Our repertoire includes the beautiful ballad "Twilight" (based on Borodin's Polovetsian Dances) by Urban-Goodman, "This Nearly Was Mine" by Richard Rodgers, "Calm As the Night" by Bohn; also "Could My Songs With Birds Be Vying" by Hahn and the delightful "La Spagnola" by DeChiara. In collaboration with the Boys' Glee Club, the combined groups sang "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan and "Falling in Love With Love" by Richard Rodgers.

Once again it is time to say good-bye to those who have served the Glee Club long and well. Our best wishes go to Mary Bevilacqua, Carol Cooper, Edith Engler, Joyce Garcia, Joyce Gutkaiss, and Joan O'Grady who are being graduated this term. May they come back to us often and review the pleasant friendships and ties which make membership in the Bryant High School Girls' Glee Club, a truly lasting joy.

At the beginning of this term you may have seen many of your classmates with tears rolling down their otherwise cheerful faces. This sudden change of expression was due to our loss, and another school's gain, of Mr. Louis Pierro, otherwise known as Uncle Louie. Our tears soon dried when we came under the capable leadership and guidance of Miss Dorothy Swanson. Some of us have received valuable assistance also from Mr. Joseph La Ruffa, the present student-teacher in the instrumental department.

Our rehearsals are progressing and we are covering a wide field of music. Starting from classical selections such as "March Militaire Francais" by Schubert, and "Scheherazade" by Rimsky Korsakov, we have gone to semi-classics such as the "Student Prince," "The Vagabond King," and other favorites including the Strauss waltzes. Our talent for the much lighter side of music has not shown itself as yet, but if you should hear the strains of "The Three Bears" coming from our sanctuary someday, we are not really going through a second childhood; it's just that we are having some serious fun.

Our greatest pleasure is in performing for special occasions such as assemblies, meetings, concerts, and other gatherings at which parents are present as well as students and teachers. We hope that they get as much pleasure out of the orchestra as we do. Our rehearsals are enjoyed by others than the orchestra, such as classes with open windows on the first, second, and third floors on our side of the building.

Another pleasant factor about the orchestra is that the atmosphere is not like that of a regular academic subject. For most of us, this is a period of relaxation and enjoyment. We are bound by a common interest. Our organization functions mainly through team work. Teamwork in the orchestra means an interest in music, respect for not only the conductor but the organization as well, and last, but not least, each individual doing his share of the work. As long as this teamwork exists, Bryant High School will have an orchestra of which it can be proud.

RADIO WORKSHOP

President ..... Terry Bertuglia
Vice-President ..... Howard Zimmerman
Secretary ..... Elsie Kramer
Treasurer ..... Barbara Glockson

The studio lights dim, the curtains part . . . a point of the finger, and . . . you're ON THE AIR. It may be for another annual city-wide broadcasting contest over WNYC and WNYE entitled "Drama Time." The Workshoppers are expecting to come out first this term with their presentation of "A Nation of Nations," written by Saul Carson. In previous years the Workshoppers have never been lower than fourth and are exceedingly proud of the Honorable Mention plaque which hangs on the wall of the studio, which they received for second place last year.

Aside from the program "Drama Time," the Radio Workshop presents several assembly programs each term for the enjoyment of all Bryantites. This term's offering was "My Client Curley." We're sure you will never forget the familiar sound of "Bing, bong, bing" coming over the loud speaker during registration, with the numerous P.A.'s written and presented daily by the members of the Workshop. These P.A.'s are presented under the amiable direction of "Uncle Knobby" (Mr. Knobloch to the uninitiated).

This term many new, as well as old, members of the Workshop are having their taste for the dramatic appeased. The tense excitement preceding a broadcast and the congratulations (or otherwise) will be greatly missed by our favorite Seniors soon to leave us. With them, and the rest of the "Shmoos" go our sincerest wishes for future success and happiness. The companionship and fun shared with the Seniors will be greatly missed by all the remaining members of to the Radio Workshop.

Our special good wishes go to the faithful members of the Workshop, Terry Bertuglia, Howard Zimmerman, Mary Boughal, Armand Kalish, Daniel Fierro and John Lynam.
